General Lunch Meeting: Construction Industry & Economic Outlook for 2018

ASA-HC is pleased to announce that, for the eighth year, FMI Corporation's Pat Kiley and Candace Hernandez will present their highly-anticipated and informative construction and economic outlook.

Prior to being acquired by FMI Corporation in January 2017, Pat and Candace worked as a team at Kiley Advisors for more than 12 years. There, they counseled senior executives on matters of strategy and leadership, all the while displaying positive energy and a passion to serve the industry. The duo is universally held in the highest regard by their clients and industry partners, and we look forward to the upcoming event.

Gordon Clunn, Clunn Acoustical and Houston Construction Industry Charities Give Back for Thanksgiving

Over the Thanksgiving holiday, Gordon Clunn, Clunn Acoustical and his Houston Construction Industry Charities foundation provided 500 dinners to needy families in East Houston.

Home is where the heart is, and all of Houston is concerned with the well-being of the city's neighbors in need, said Clunn, director of Houston Construction Industries Charities, which solicits funds for charitable donations from local construction companies and personnel.

"This holiday meal was a welcome reminder of the holiday season, and that those struggling with the impact of Hurricane Harvey are not forgotten," he said. "Houstonians helping Houstonians is part of what makes our city a great place to live."

Safety and Dividends Go Together Like a Hammer and Nails.

In construction, safety builds dividends. Plus, as a member of the Texas Construction Association Safety Group, you may receive a greater discount on your workers' comp premium. We're helping our policyholder owners be safer and stronger—and we think you'll find it very rewarding.

For dividends built on safety, contact your agent or Gina O'Hara at (512) 330-9836, ext. 6324 or info@txconstructionwc.com.
